

Organizations that Support Pollinators

The Beecology Project

- Bumblebees at risk and more, founded by Dr. Robert Gegear, Professor of Entomology
- Citizen science app to collect and share data on food and habitat needs of bumblebees

EcoBeneficial!

- founded by Kim Eierman, author of The Pollinator Victory Garden
- Podcasts, interviews and articles

Grow Native Massachusetts

- Recommendations of books and reliable sites
- Videos of "Evenings with Experts"

Mass Audubon

- Food and habitat preferences for butterflies, birds, and mammals
- Information about control of invasive species

Native Plant Trust (Formerly New England Wildflower Society)

- Native plants for sale at Nasami Farm in Whately
- Workshops, events, and on-line learning

Northeast Organic Farming Assn, Massachusetts \(NOFA\)

- Summer and Winter Conferences, workshops and on-line learning
- Soil Technical Assistance Program for balancing soil nutrients

Pollinator Pathways Northeast

- Register your pollinator garden by region
- Citizen science ideas and on-line learning

Western Massachusetts Master Gardener Association

- Workshops and annual symposia
- "Ask a Master Gardener" hotline via phone and email
- Biennial Master Gardener training course

Western Mass Pollinator Networks

- GG's Planting for Pollinators! Campaign is part of WMPN
- Event listings, resources, local clean plant sources, links to other towns

Xerces Society

- Fact sheets, books, and articles
- Identification and monitoring guides

